Photo 1. (Left) Typical flowers of Ranunculus glaberrimus with five or six bright, shiny yellow petals that are slightly concave. Photo: John Theberge.

Photo 2. (Right) Ranunculus glaberrimus with 13 petals which are smaller than those with only 5 petals. Plants that flower later in the season are more likely to have additional petals. Photo: Sarah Heselgrave.

Photo 3. (Left) Apetalous Ranunculus glaberrimus at the eastern outskirts of Kelowna near Highway 33. Photo: Peter Green.

Photo 4. (Right) Apetalous Ranunculus glaberrimus along the Rose Valley trail near West Kelowna. Photo: Jorma Jyrkkanen.